

JANE

JANE BLOG

Not for Tourists Guide to Queens

July 19, 2006

I've lived in Queens my whole life and I love it there, but I'm regretful to admit that this 'round the way girl rarely ventures outside of her immediate area. Queens isn't like Manhattan, people!!! It's residential, people mostly use their own cars or bus to get around and you can easily get lost. That's why this handy guide rocks my world. It's complete with maps, calendars of local events and all sorts of other fun and useful listings. Now that I carry this book around with me at all times, I can boldly go anywhere in Queens and never be more than 10 or 15 blocks away from a bank, restaurant or liquor store. Pretty sweet. —Diana